

CYBER INSURANCE

Cyber risk is now widely accepted as being one of the top emerging risks and it is an issue for all organisations in any industry, especially those in the Financial Institutions, Technology, Retail, Health, Hospitality and other critical infrastructure industry that is vulnerable for cyber hackers.

Evaluating, mitigating and transferring cyber risk is not a tick box exercise. It requires a trusted and subject expert to guide through the process.

Nectar offers a range of solutions and services, made to fit client requirements - from off-the-shelf cyber policies for SMEs to complex bespoke solutions for large corporates.
